WHEREAS, Friends of free enterprise at home and abroad recognize that economic freedom is essential to political freedom and personal liberty; and,

WHEREAS, Free enterprise has been a major factor in the progress of our great nation and in the prosperity of its citizens; and,

WHEREAS, Free enterprise has been acknowledged by peoples throughout the world as the economic system which creates material wealth and abundance, while safeguarding the principles of individual freedom; and,

WHEREAS, Forces of socialism and communism understand that their own economic systems cannot compete with free enterprise, and that they must therefore seek to destroy it;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, July 1, 1978, as in South Dakota, and urge all citizens to observe this day in an appropriate fashion.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Fourth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Eight.
